Pure Stone washbasin with grey stone finish

Pure Stone toilet suite and bidet

Pure Stone range brings nature into the bathroom

As the flowers begin to blossom signalling the start of a new season and the brighter, warmer days remind us of our appreciation for the great outdoors, Villeroy & Boch's Pure Stone range allows homeowners to bring the elements of nature indoors.

A popular choice for Australian homes, Villeroy & Boch's Pure Stone range brings warmth and character to the bathroom environment. Based on the smooth texture and irregular form of stone, the range consists of toilet suites, bidets and washbasins, available in either a white or grey stone finish.

Combined with wooden furniture or neutral coloured décor, the natural, earthy Pure Stone collection brings a cosy, country feel to the home. Its smooth contours and seamless form infuse both elegance and simplicity.

To accentuate the contemporary elements of the range, use large mirrors and modern furniture, combined with brightly coloured towels and accessories, such as vases and ornaments, for a chic, modern aesthetic.
